

To the FCC:

I am entirely opposed to the revocation of the cross-ownership ban that currently prevents media outlets from owning the television stations and newspapers in a single market.

The only way to ensure that we have a diversity of news coverage serving a diverse audience is to prevent monopolies and the narrowing down of voices that would come with them.

Cindy McGroarty